Politicians in Consultation.

Judge J. H. Polsgrove, of Frankfort, candidate for the Democratic nomination for Commonwealth's Attorney from this district, was in the city Tuesday in consultation with Mr. N. C. Fisher, who is a candidate for the same office. It is understood that Judge Polsgrove was here to try to get Mr. Fisher to withdraw, so that the opposition in the district to Col. R. B. Franklin could be concentrated on one candidate. Mr. Fisher, it is said, answered his argument by a counter-proposition, proposing to the Judge that he get out of the way and let him take Col. Franklin's scalp. Mr. Fisher claimed that if the race is between Mr. Franklin and Judge Polsgrove that the former would carry Bourbon by a majority that Polsgrove could not overcome in Franklin county. Mr. Fisher also claimed that by him carrying Bourbon by a large majority, and getting a good vote in Scott and Woodford, he is in a position to clean up with both of the contending candidates.

Bourbon county is entitled to this office and it is up to the voters of this county whether or not they will take this opportunity to secure it. If the Democrats of this county will get together and give Mr. Fisher their solid support, as other counties do their candidates, then Bourbon can get what is rightly and justly due in the way of district offices. Let these factional fights end and support county men and we will then become a power in district politics.

Grand Opening.

We announce our grand fall opening Thursday, Friday and Saturday, Oct. 1, 2 and 3. HARRY SIMON.

A Word of Warning.

The depredations committed the past week by the number of small boys that hang around the opera house each evening have become unbearable and Manager Jackson has taken steps to prevent further destruction of the property in his care. One night this week some of the boys climbed to the balcony in front of the house and forced an entrance through one of the large front windows by prizing it open with a hatchet, breaking the glass, took possession and for a time had things going their own way. Mr. Jackson will have warrants issued for three boys known to be parties to this outrageous act and may prosecute them in an effort to put a stop to this vandalism.

Foot Ball.

The Paris Athletic Club football team has been organized and the prospects are very bright for having a team that will be able to hold their own with all of the small college teams and athletic clubs of this section. Harry Holt has been elected manager. Neely Ranson captain of the first team and Harry Brent Fithian captain of the second team. A full equipment of suits, etc., have been ordered and hard practice will begin early next week. Any player who may desire to try for the team is requested to hand his name to Captain Ranson at once.

Millinery Opening.

October 1st and 2nd are the dates of Mrs. Corne Watson Baird's millinery opening. 18 5t

Saloon License Revoked.

When Mayor James M. O'Brien entered upon the duties of his office he stated that public policy demanded that the law be observed and that as long as he was Mayor of the city it would be rigidly enforced without fear or favor, and well has he kept his word. He then, right at the beginning of his term put the "lid" on good and tight. He informed the saloon men then that an arrest and conviction in the police court for violation of the Sunday law meant revocation of license.

On Sunday last, Officer Ben Bishop caught Coughlin Bros., who run a saloon on the corner of Tenth and Pleasant streets, violating the Sunday closing law and arrested them. They were tried before Judge E. T. Hinton Monday morning and fined $20 and costs.

Mayor O'Brien at once called a special meeting of the City Council for Tuesday night and laid the matter before them, asking them to revoke the saloon license of Coughlin Bros. Councilman T. F. Brannon, agent for the Lion Brewing Co., moved that said license be revoked and he carried without a dissenting vote.

Mayor O'Brien further stated that all saloons in Paris, if their proprietors expect to remain in business must observe the Sunday closing law, both in spirit and letter. The Mayor said it was unjust for some of the saloons to observe the law and others to violate it, and that in no sense would it be permitted or tolerated.

Final Action by Burley Board.

The District Board of the Burley Tobacco Society convened at Winchester Wednesday at 2 o'clock. The roll call, reading of the minutes of the last meeting and a report from the counties concerning the pricing and sampling of the 1907 crop occupied most of the afternoon.

Many counties are through or nearly through with the pricing, while others have been greatly hindered by the dry weather.

At the evening session each member of the District Board was instructed to file with the secretary of the Winchester office the claim made by his county for its share of the $3 buyers' fee for the financing of the 1906 crop. As soon as these claims are passed up they will be paid. The remainder of the $3 buyers' fee will be used as an expense fund for salaries and office expenses.

At the session at night each member of the District Board was instructed to file a statement of his expenses as director. After the accounts are properly audited the secretary will pay them.

This is the first step taken to reimburse any member of the district organization for his actual traveling and other expenses. There was no other business before the meeting and the board adjourned.

Bourbon's Biggest Concern.

We find the following in the Nicholas Advocate concerning one of Bourbon county's strongest business organizations:

"The Hurst Home Insurance Company, located at Millersburg, Ky., and doing business in ten counties in the Blue Grass belt with $2,750,000 insurance in force, had two losses last week in this county and one in Harrison county, and the smoke had hardly cleared away, when F. P. Hurst, Secretary and Manager was on the ground ready to make adjustments and the losses were all settled dollar for dollar."

"The losses were Z. W. Lee on barn in Harrison county, loss $2,500, insurance $800; D. W. Morris, house and contents at Carlisle, loss $2,000, insurance $1,000; J. O. Shroats, house and contents at Buzzard Roost, lost $1,500, insurance $700. The losses all occurred on Tuesday and were all paid Thursday morning."

"This company by shrewd management by its officers and board of directors, is now on its feet in great shape. It looks like they will reach the three million mark before Jan. 1, 1909, and then there will be no turn back, for 'nothing succeeds like success.' The Manager, Mr. Hurst, is a good man for his place, for he never tires in his work for his company or in singing its advantages over all others."

$10 Free.

DEATHS.

—Mr. John D. Penn died Tuesday afternoon at the Good Samaritan Hospital, Lexington, aged 69 years, after a long illness. Mr. Penn was one of the bravest of Confederate soldiers and was popular with his old comrades. He was a member of Company C, Ninth Kentucky Cavalry, commanded by the late Col. W. C. P. Breckinridge, and together with his beloved commander surrendered and was paroled at Washington, Ga., May 10, 1865. His company was commanded by Capt. Ed. Taylor.

Mr. Penn was wounded in a skirmish which Colonel Breckinridge led against the forces of General George Morgan near Cumberland Gap in 1862. From the effects of the wound Mr. Penn never entirely recovered.

Mr. Penn like all of his brothers had lived the life of a bachelor. He was a brother of Joseph D. Penn, who died in Rochester, Minn., from the effects of a surgical operation, the body being interred in the Paris Cemetery. Mr. Penn is survived by one brother Mr. William Penn, and one sister Mrs. Joe Redmon. The body was brought Wednesday afternoon to the home of his brother-in-law, Mr. Lloyd Ashurst on the Bethlehem pike, where the funeral took place yesterday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. Rev. Carey E. Morgan officiated. The interment was in the Paris cemetery.

The pall-bearers were his old comrades, viz: Active—Chas. H. Meng, Capt. Ed. Taylor, A. T. Forsyth, John W. Boulden, Alex. Macklin, Jos. E. Hedges. Honorary—C. W. Rogers, Russell Mann, W. G. Holt, John W. Skillman, Jos. A. Miller, John E. Abrahams.

—Miss Ruth Howe, daughter of Dr. W. D. Howe, one of the best known physicians of Nicholas county, died of typhoid fever after an illness of three weeks. She was nineteen years old.

—The Carlisle Advocate says: "Mr. Jim Will Marshall, who has been sick for some time with typhoid fever, died Monday morning. He died very happy."

"Not often you hear of them dying this way."

Settles With His Widow.

The widow of Chas. Johnson, the negro employee of the L. & N. railroad, who lost his life while asleep in a pile of coal which was being lifted into the coal chute by a steam shovel, in which Johnson was carried up with the coal, has settled in full with railroad company, the latter paying Johnson's funeral expenses and giving the widow a check for $50. The coroner's verdict exonerated the railroad company from any negligence in the matter.

Horseradish.

Home-grown and home-gated horseradish at 10 cents per glass. BATTERTON & DOTY.

Will Fire on Auto Cranks.

There have been so many runaway teams and so much damage recently caused by automobile racing on turnpikes entering Owingsville that farmers have become desperate and declare that as they have no other recourse, these machines shall be excluded from the use of turnpikes in Bath county, if not by law, then by the use of shotguns. The road between Owingsville and Mt. Sterling is guarded day and night by men with guns. The feeling is very strong.

Not An Honest Thing.

Judge Grosscup, of the federal court,
in speaking at Grand Rapids recently, took occasion to condemn the anti-injunction plank of the Republican platform. He said:

"When I first lodged there (the platform) a declaration put in only to catch votes, I am afraid people will doubt the sincerity of the whole platform. This declaration won't catch any labor votes. It is not an honest thing to do. I know the laboring men, know the general honesty of their purpose, and know that they are not to be caught with chaff. And this (the anti-injunction plank) is chaff."

Continuing, he said that if "the anti-injunction plank, so-called, of the Republican platform were written into law, it would give nothing more than has always been the custom of the courts."

Judge Grosscup is right. The plank pretends to hold out a promise to the laboring man, but it is, after all, no promise at all.

Adlai E. Stevenson,

When the Democrats of Illinois nominated Adlai E. Stevenson as their candidate for governor they honored themselves and the party by their choice. Mr. Stevenson's nomination unites the party and gives in a fighting strength that promises well for the future. He is the candidate of a united Democracy, whose battles he has fought steadily and faithfully for many years. His record in public life commends him to the people of the whole country, and especially to the people of his State. Wherever he has been called he has measured up to every duty. With Adlai Stevenson carrying the banner of a united and a militant Illinois Democracy, victory should be won next November.

Questions for You to Solve.

Shall we tax large incomes in America, as is done by the progressive republics of Switzerland and France, also in Germany and England?

The Democratic platform says yes.

The Republican platform silent.

Shall we elect United States Senators by a direct vote, thus making it difficult, if not impossible, for millionaires to control the nation through the upper house?

The Democratic platform says yes.

The Republican platform silent.

Shall we take the duty off trust controlled articles with arbitrary prices fixed upon the customer without regard to laws of supply and demand, all competition having thus been throttled?

The Democratic platform says yes.

The Republican platform silent.

Shall a reasonable tax be paid by banks to create a guarantee fund to protect depositors, thus preventing runs on banks and money panics and thereby bringing into circulation hoarded wealth?

The Democratic platform says yes.

The Republican platform silent.

The scandalous and dangerous corruption of the electorate by the use of enormous campaign funds points to the decay of a free government. Shall we know before election, through publicity, from whence and from whom came these great contributions?

The Democratic platform says yes.

The Republican platform silent.

Shall we have billion dollar sessions of Congress and a vast army of officeholders dictating Presidential nominations?

The Democratic platform condemns.
Republican platform necessarily silent.

The Greatest Question.

In a statement given out at Hot Springs, Va., Saturday, August 4, Mr.
Taft said:

"Speaking generally, I believe the greatest question now before the American public is the improvement of the administration of justice, civil and criminal, both in the matter of its prompt dispatch and the cheapness of its use."

Referring to this statement the New York World asks Mr. Taft to explain why the Republican national platform makes no reference to this "the greatest question now before the American people."

Easy to Solve.

If wages have increased 19 per cent.
under the Dingley tariff law and the cost of living has increased 49 per cent.
in what way is the working man benefitted or protected by the Republican party? It is the kind of protection that wolves give to lambs.

Don't Object Now.

The Republicans locked upon it as very undignified on the part of Mr.
Bryan to take the stump in 1896 and 1900. So far as heard from none of them have offered any objection to Mr.
Taft taking the stump in 1908.

Encouraging to Democrats.

Maine had a State election Monday and the Republican plurality was cut to less than 8,000 votes for the first time in a Presidential election year for more than a quarter of a century.
Four years ago the Republican candidate for Governor had a majority of more than 34,000 over his Democratic opponent.

Arkansas had a State election Monday and rolled up the usual 60,000
Democratic majority.

The skies are bright for the Democratic party in the approaching presidential election.

Fake Prosperity Scheme.

The masses of the people are taken for fools of the fit at water by Republican papers and speakers in the strenuous effort they are making in promoting their fake prosperity scheme. The voters are getting better posted day by day and year by year. They are beginning to know that prosperity does not come at the bidding of individuals, and these fakes can't fool them any longer.
Every man who toils and sweats in workshops or field or along commercial lines knows that conditions are but little changed. General business continues dull. Thousands of laborers, skilled and unskilled, are still idle or work only part of the time. There is no diminution in taxes, and the cost of living continues to advance. It would be difficult to convince the laboring class that their condition is improving.

Not For Billie T.

It is reported that when Mr. Taft launches on his speaking tour he will be challenged by Mr. Bryan for a debate on the issues of the campaign. It is not at all probable that Mr. Taft would accept such a challenge, for he knows full well what his lot would be at the hand of the Nebraskan—one an old hand at the game; the other scarcely a little more than an amateur. A broadside of facts on present issues from the eloquent tongue of the Democratic nominee would make Mr. Taft a subject of much ridicule and might increase the antipathy of the American people for Republicanism.

Tales of Cities.

It is legal in East Orange, N. J., to deliver ice cream on Sunday, but not bread.

Vienna has 32,000 street beggars, and many of them make a better living than workmen.

Value of real estate on Manhattan Island is four times as much as that of the other four boroughs of the city combined.

St. Louis was at one time a "village near Chaokla," where mail was received by a "star route" once a month, provided the weather was good.

Culinary Conceits.

Stuffed olives chopped fine, mixed with cream cheese and made into balls are delicious if served with a plain salad.

Chicken salad is delicious if mixed with small pieces of green pepper and mayonnaise. Press the meat into pepper cases.

When using stale bread for puddings always soak it in a cold liquid. Bread that has been soaked in cold milk or water is light and crumbly, whereas that soaked in hot liquids is heavy.

The Actress' Retort.

Georgette Leblanc, the actress, wife of Maurice Maeterlinck, was on tour in a French town, where the local company "supported" her in one of her husband's plays.

But the support was weak and halting. The poet's lines were mangled, and several characters seemed unable to understand what they were saying. Mme. Leblanc sought out her manager and spoke to him.

"A writer like Maeterlinck should be treated with more respect."

"Madame," he answered, "M. Maeterlinck is not the first to suffer. Sophocles, Moliere, Racine, Shakespeare, Goethe and other great dramatists are daily murdered in the same way."

"Possibly, but they are not murdered alive, at any rate."

The Unappreciative Londoner.

London is a marvel. But we Londoners do not wax passionate over its qualities as the enthusiastic Frenchman does over his Paris. There is more beauty, more charm, more wealth, more culture and more art to be found in London than anywhere in the world, and we stolid English people do not really appreciate it.—London Graphic.

An Unwritten Law.

The smaller man bristled up. "See here," he growled, "you have applied two unpleasant terms to me." Then he paused and scowled and came a little closer. "I just want you to understand that a third term doesn't go in this country."

Whereupon the big man drew back a little and said no more.—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

Located at Last.

Drummer (settling bill in Eagle House, Hayfield)—Pardon my curiosity, sir, but what do you stuff your beds with in this hotel? Landlord (proudly)—Best straw to be had in this hull county, b'gosh! Drummer—Ahl! That is very interesting. I know now where the straw came from that broke the camel's back!—Puck.

His Was Hers.

"I heard him behind the door pleading for just one. They must be engaged."

"Now, they're married. It was a dollar he was pleading for."—Louisville Courier-Journal.

The Baby Will Get Even.

Hewitt—Does your baby keep you awake? Jewett—No, I fooled him. As soon as he was born I got a job working nights.—New York Press.

Before you set your heart on anything mature, consider whether it will add to your ultimate happiness.

A Poetic Comparison.

The poet was favoring a friendly soul with his last verses, says a writer in St. James' Budget. The verses were descriptive of a beautiful girl. The poet read:

"Her hair was massed in flowing curls, The color of a whisper."

This made the listener "sit up." "What's that?" he said. "Read that again."

"I thought you would say something about that," the poet answered. "I don't want to appear egotistical, but that little phrase gives some scope for the exercise of the mind."

"In what way?"

The poet laughed.

"Don't you see," he said, "how beautifully that describes the shade of her hair? Every poet speaks of golden hair or raven locks. To be a success one must be original. Well, she did not have golden hair. It was nearly golden, and I convey the impression by means of that one word."

The other still looked puzzled.

"You have heard," said the poet patiently, "that silence is golden?"

"Yes," the other admitted.

"Well," resumed the poet, "if silence is golden what would a whisper be? It would be nearly golden, wouldn't it?"

The poet laughed again. The other was sitting down and could not stagger, so he laughed too.

Indian Burials.

The Indian method of burial was to fasten a corpse upon cross sticks supported by poles in the ground or in the boughs of the treetops. Here the air and the elements silently disposed of the lifeless clay until in a year or so but little remained to bear evidence of a tomb, perhaps some broken sticks in the top and a few scattered beads or human bones beneath the burial place. I cannot conceive of anything more pitifully gruesome than an Indian burial ground of this type. I have seen them in the fall of the year, when the winds were shaking and swaying the platforms and wringing the leafless trees, flaunting the burial rags like signals of distress from the dead and whistling through and over the whitening bones and neglected remains of those who had many a time withstood the tempest and storm when the breath of life stirred within them.—Army and Navy Life.

The Pelican.

The pelican is not an attractive bird. He offends both the eye and the nose. But he is commendably regular in his habits. The parent birds catch fish and after eating their fill deposit the others in their pouches under their bills and carry them to their young. These pouches will hold from three to eight pounds of fish. They are elastic and when distended to their utmost nearly touch the ground. When empty, the pouch lies close up under the big bill and is merely a mass of wrinkles. It is this pouch that gives the pelican his characteristic and disagreeable odor, caused by particles of decaying fish. The pelican's legs are short and strong, and its feet have large webs. It is not a fast swimmer or a rapid flier, but it is practically tireless in both air and water. On land it is awkward and unwieldy.

How Frozen Insects Revive.

Experiments in reviving frozen insects by a naturalist show some surprising results. A large cecropia moth, frozen in the center of a snowball until it was perfectly brittle, revived in twenty seconds when held near a stove. Several newly hatched moths revived in a similar manner after being frozen stiff and then thawed out. Similar experiments with ants, butterflies and house flies gave the same results. But the naturalist noticed that recently hatched insects resist cold better than older ones.

The Organ.

Like most important inventions, that of the organ is veiled in mystery. The invention of the organ has been attributed to Ctesibius, a barber of Alexandria, about 250 B. C.; also to the celebrated Archimedes, 220 B. C. It is certain that the organ was brought to Europe from the eastern or Greek empire and was applied to religious devotions in churches about A. D. 650.

Out of the Hymnbook.

A minister, having given out his "notices," was about to read his hymn when he was reminded of one notice he had forgotten. Stopping, he made this announcement, apologizing for his forgetfulness. Then, much to the amusement of his audience, he began to line out the hymn as follows:

"Lord, what a thoughtless wretch am I!"—Judge's Library.

To Simplify English.

It is the vowels which are the great difficulty of English pronunciation. We want our vowel sounds standardized for us—all the pronunciations, with the correct intonations, set down for us in some intelligible and easily understood form.—Country Life.

The Genius.

Mark Twain said of genius at a New York banquet:

"A genius, as an old lady in Hannibal once explained to me, is a man what knows more'n he can find out and spills vittels on his clothes."

Handel's Philosophy.

Handel, when the curtain would rise upon a nearly empty house, would say soothingly to his associates:

"Ach, never mind; the music will sound all the better!"

There are two ways of meeting a trouble—either give it no attention at all or give it a great deal of attention promptly.—Atchison Globe.

STRANGE ADVICE!

Dr. G. O. Green gives alert personal attention to his great humanitarian contract.

In our Almanac for many years past we have given unusual advice to those afflicted with coughs, colds, throat or lung troubles or consumption. We have told them if they did not receive any special benefit after the use of one 75-cent size bottle of German Syrup, to consult their doctor. We did not ask them or urge them to use a large number of bottles, as is the case in the advertising of many other remedies. Our confidence in German Syrup makes it possible for us to give such advice. We know by the experience of over 35 years that one 75-cent bottle of German Syrup will speedily relieve or cure the worst coughs, colds, bronchial or lung troubles—and that, even in bad cases of consumption, one large bottle of German Syrup will work wonders. New trial bottles, 25c.; regular size, 75c. At all druggists.

ADOLESCENCE OF THE DOLLAR.

Present Unit of Value Has Had Many Forms and Shapes.

The dollar took some rounding. Nor did it formerly ring true, but, much alive, simply gave a bleat or bellow. Cattle, among country folk, at one time constituted the dollar, while primitive man generally made use of any article sufficiently abundant for the standard payment of all merchandise, writes R. Holt Lomax in Harper's Weekly. Thus, in ancient Greece, a large bronze tripod had the value of a dozen oxen. A good hard working woman, on the other hand, was given in exchange for only four such beasts. When metal took the place of money, the dollar clung to its traditions, and coins were still called after live stock. Thus, "pecunia," applied to metal money, derived its origin from "pecus" (cattle). From the custom of counting heads of cattle came the present designation of a sum in cash—capital, or "capita" (heads). In Sanscrit, rouspa, (herd, flock) made rouspa, or the Indian rupee, while the ingots of electrum, or admixture of gold and silver, when first in use as money, bore the impress of an ox or cow. Not clumsy, but too fragile, were the shells in use as money by the negroes of Africa, and throughout ancient Asia, where the natives, taken by its beauty, gave the shell a money value.

The Safest Helm.

The best and safest helm for a man is a good wife. Give her a quarter of a chance and she will steer him straight. But don't call her a hellum, as the sailors pronounce helm.—New York Press.

Tokay grapes and California plums. BATTERTON & DOTY.

Going Some.

William J. Bryan delivered seventeen speeches in New York State Wednesday, winding up another strenuous day with a series of addresses in Rochester where he was accorded a remarkable ovation. One of the largest and most enthusiastic crowds was joined by Lieut. Gov. Lewis Stuyvesant Chanler, nominated for Governor by the New York Democrats.

No Poison Found.

The chemist at State University on yesterday reported to Coroner Rudolph Davis, that no poison was found in the stomach of Henry Richie, which was sent to him for analysis few days ago by the Coroner.

It will be remembered that Mr. Richie was the young man that died suddenly last Saturday, at the residence of W. O. Florence, on Winchester pike, immediately after taking a drink from a bottle. It was thought he had committed suicide, but no traces of poison could be found by the Lexington Chemist.

A Hustling Firm.

The enterprising firm of Thomson, Muir & Barns is making great strides in their line of business. In the real estate branch they have certainly made a success, buying and selling city property every day for their clients. They have sold several farms and have quite a number listed with them at present. The collecting agency which they are conducting is meeting with great success. They have entire charge of the accounts of a number of large firms in Paris and are giving entire satisfaction. Promptness and close attention to business has made them an enviable reputation in their line of business.

Great Crowd at Louisville.

Kentucky and Indiana day, with the Hon. John Worth Kern, the Democratic nominee for Vice President, were the magnets which drew the largest crowd of the week to the Kentucky State Fair Wednesday, and the day will go down in history as one of the greatest known since the establishment of the fair six years ago. People came from every section of Kentucky and Indiana to be present and hear the distinguished guest of the day, and it is doubtful if a public man was ever given a more cordial welcome than was extended to Mr. Kern by the thousands of loyal Kentuckians and Indians.

Highwaymen Busy in These Parts

Highwaymen seem to be holding successful erg gements in these parts, as two holdups were pulled off within the city limits Monday night.

Thos. H. South, of Frankfort, was returning from North Middletown at 11:30 and was halted in East Paris by three white men and at the point of pistols was compelled to hand out $30 in cash, a fine Swiss gold watch valued at $100 and his pistol.

Mr. South had his pistol on the buzzy seat until a few minutes before he was halted. He said he had become a little chilly and after passing two arc lights he put his gun into his hip pocket and buttoned his coat tightly around him.
One of the men held his horse, one covered him with a big gun and the third went through him, taking his pistol first.

When Mr. South discovered his helpless condition he asked them to give him back $2 of the money, as he wished to get back to Frankfort, and stated also that the chain and fob was the gift of a young lady friend and that he prized it very highly.

The robbers gave Mr. South the money and chain as requested, and after ad-monishing him to keep quiet permitted him to continue his journey to the Windsor Hotel, where he was stopping.

About the same time Mr. Henry Shout, who was accompanied by two little boys, was stopped by three negroes, near the Fair Grounds, and made to hand over $4.00 all of the money he had with him. The negroes then disappeared in the fair grounds, going toward the Clintonville pike.
Another sensational story of a hold-up was started Wednesday morning upon our streets. It was said that James Moran, aged 17 years, was found in an unconscious condition and had been robbed of $15 by unknown men. Sheriff E. P. Clarke and Deputy Sheriff W. K. Talbott visited the scene of the reported robbery and from their investigation of the matter it appears that somebody must have been dreaming, for the story did not pan out well and resembles something like a fake or a "pipe dream."

Fall Millinery.

The ladies of Paris and Bourbon county certainly have a treat in store for them if the preparations for the fall display of millinery at the store of Mrs. Corne Watson Baird continues as it has started. Mrs. Baird showed the News man yesterday some of the most beautiful creations in millinery that he has ever had the pleasure of seeing.

Miss Janet Scott, of Los Angeles,
Cal., has been engaged to superintend the trimming department and with a score of helpers she is making wonderful progress for the grand opening on October 1st and 2nd.

Every lady in Bourbon and adjoining counties should be on hand at this big display whether they intend to buy or not for it will be worth a trip of miles just to have a look. Mrs. Baird says the much talked of Directoire Hat will be much in evidence and her stock will be large. Her line of pattern hats as usual will no doubt be the talk of the stylish folks of the bluegrass. Don't forget the dates, Thursday and Friday,
Oct. 1 and 2.

How's This?

We offer One Hundred Dollars Reward for any case of Catarrh that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, O. We, the undersigned, have known F. J. Cheney for the last fifteen years, and believe him perfectly honorable in all business transactions and financially able to carry out any obligations made by him.

WALDING, KINNAN & MARVIN, Wholesale Druggists, Toledo, O. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. Testimonials sent free. Price 75c. per bottle. Sold by all Druggists. Take Hall's Family Pills for constipation.

Nature's Supremacy.

All argument will vanish before one touch of nature.—Coleman.

The Remedy That Does.

"Dr. King's New Discovery is the remedy that does the healing, others promise but fail to perform," says Mrs. E. R. Pierson, of Auburn Centre, Pa. "It is curing me of throat and lung trouble of long standing, that other treatments relieve only temporarily. New Discovery is doing me so much good that I feel confident its continued use for a reasonable length of time will restore me to perfect health." This renowned cough and cold remedy and throat and lung healer is sold at Oberdorfer's drug store. 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free. sept

Comrades.

"Don't follow me, pup," said the good natured man to the lost dog. "I haven't any more home than you have. I live in a flat."—Washington Herald.

Don't be afraid to give Chamberlain's Cough Remedy to your children. It contains no opium or other harmful drugs. It always cures. For sale by W. T. Brooks. You need no other guarantee.

It Can't Be Beat.

The best of all teachers is experience. C. M. Harden, of Silver City, North Carolina, says: "I find Electric Bitters does all that's claimed for it. For Stomach, Liver and Kidney troubles it can't be beat. I have tried it and find it a most excellent medicine." Mr. Harden is right; it's the best of all medicines also for weakness, lame back, and all run down conditions. Best too for chills and malaria. Sold under guarantee at Oberdorfer's drug store. 50c. sept

How It Happened.

Perhaps the physician who got intoxicated on water drank it with whiskey chasers.—N. Y. American.

For a Sprained Ankle.

A sprained ankle may be cured in about one-third the time usually required, by applying Chamberlain's Pain Balm freely, and giving it absolute rest. For sale by W. T. Brooks. You need no other guarantee.

Speed.

The American Globe-Trotter—Talk about traveling. Why, in America trains go so fast that it takes two people to talk about 'em—one to say, "Here she comes," and the other to say, "There she goes."—Sketch.

Best the World Affords.

"It gives me unbounded pleasure to recommend Bucklen's Arnica Salve," says J. W. Jenkins, of Chapel Hill, N. C. "I am convinced it's the best salve the world affords. It cured a felon on my thumb, and it never fails to heal every sore, burn or wound to which it is applied." 25c at Oberdorfer's drug store. sept Combines Economy and Leisure. An enterprising scissors grinder of Los Angeles, Cal., has mounted his grinder on an automobile, using the car's power to also run the grinder, and now rides from place to place instead of walking, as formerly.

Just Exactly Right.

"I have used Dr. King's New Life Pills for several years, and find them just exactly right," says Mr. A. A. Felton, of Harrisville, N. Y. "New Life Pills relieve without the least discomfort. Best remedy for constipation, biliousness and malaria. 25 cents at Oberdorfer's drug store."

Thoughts of a Spinster.

Self-control is what enables a man to be pleasant all day at the office and then go home at night and grumble and growl at his wife and family and the cooking and the way everything is run there.

A Traveling Man's Experience.

"I must tell you my experience on an East bound O. R. & N. R. train from Pendleton to Le Grande, Ore.," writes Sam A. Garber, a well-known traveling man. "I was in the smoking department with some other traveling men when one of them went out into the coach and came back and said 'There is a woman sick unto death in the car.' I at once got up and went out found her very ill with cramp colic her hands and arms were drawn up so you could not straighten them and with a death like look on her face. Two or three ladies were working with her and giving her whiskey. I went to my suit case and got my bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy (I never travel without it), ran to the water tank, put a double dose of the medicine in the glass, poured some water into it and stirred it with a pencil; then I had quite a time to get the ladies to let me give it to her, but I succeeded. I could at once see the effect and I worked with her, rubbing her hands, and in twenty minutes I gave her another dose. By this time we were almost into Le Grande, where I was to leave the train. I gave the bottle to the husband to be used in case another dose should be needed, but by the time the train ran into Le Grande she was all right, and I received the thanks of every passenger in the car." For sale by W. T. Brooks. You need no other guarantee.

Oldest Treaty.

The oldest text of a real treaty extant is that of the convention between Rameses II., king of Egypt, and the prince of Kheta, which embraces the articles of a permanent offensive and defensive alliance, with clauses providing for the extradition of emigrants, deserters, criminals and skilled workmen. This treaty was drawn up in the fourteenth century B. C., and is the earliest record that we have of any international transaction.

And All It Implies.

"O for the men of old!" sings a lady poet in one of the current magazines. It is our impression that the men of old demanded a good deal of submission on the part of their wives.—Chicago Record-Herald.

Fool Plus Fool.

A fool always finds a greater fool to admire him.

Who Pays for This?

A man who had served 18 months of a five-year term has just been released from the Western Penitentiary because it was shown that his conviction was the result of mistaken identity.—Philadelphia North American.

Why He Felt Happy.
"Yernon told me this morning," related the lady with the cold blue eyes, "that he passed the tree where two years ago he carved your initials and his own and encircled them with a heart. He says he felt so glad he almost danced for joy."
"Ah," said the tall brunet anxiously, "then he must still love me, after all! Did he tell you why he felt so happy?"
"Yes, dear. He said some men were cutting the tree down!"

DAMES AND DAUGHTERS.

Mrs. Sarah A. Cross of Sunapee, N. H., eighty-four years old, was recently seen at work in a hayfield.

Jane Addams is said to have a larger constituency than any college president in the world. Nine thousand men, women and children go to Hull House to attend clubs and classes.

Mrs. Phil Lydig, a society leader, appeared at the Newport casino one morning this season wearing double veils of white and brown from the bridge of her nose to well under her chin, with only her eyes showing.

Mrs. Jenny C. Law Handy, now residing in Tecumseh, Mich., has circled the globe three times. She was born in Australia, educated in Germany and Italy and now is married in America. She speaks four languages and comes of a prominent family.

"Mandy" Crum, an eccentric lady living in Williamstown, Mass., celebrates her birthdays by receiving the people of the town and accepting their contributions toward her winter supply of food, clothes, etc. She always issues a general invitation previous to the celebration.

Miss Dorothea Klumpke, the famous California astronomer, who was the first woman to gain the degree of doctor of mathematics in France, has a special building of her own in the great observatory garden of Paris. One of her duties is to photograph the stars in that section of the heavens known as the Paris belt. For this purpose she makes frequent balloon ascensions.

Pen, Chisel and Brush.

Francis Bacon was plain in his habits of eating. While providing elaborate and splendid banquets for his guests he himself ate only one or two simple dishes.

According to an English journal, the American Winston Churchill's novels gain in British circulation because many people suppose them to be diversions of Winston Spencer Churchill, the president of the British board of trade.

Ettore Ferrari of Rome, the foremost sculptor of Italy, whose greatest work is the equestrian statue of Victor Emmanuel, has completed a statue of Verdi, which will stand in Fairmount park, Philadelphia, the gift of Italian residents of that city.

Jules LeFebvre, the artist, is anxious that the prize he has offered to American art students, consisting of a year's tuition at the Julian academy under himself and Robert Fleury and a silver medal, shall be more generally competed for by art students in America.

Though wrong may win, its victory is brief.—Leonard.

The Badge of Honesty

Is on every wrapper of Doctor Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery because a full list of the ingredients composing it is printed there in plain English. Forty years of experience has proven its superior worth as a blood purifier and invigorating tonic for the cure of stomach disorders and all liver ills. It builds up the run-down system as no other tonic can in which alcohol is used. The active medicinal principles of native roots such as Golden Seal and Queen's root, Stone and Mandrake root, Bloodroot and Black Cherry bark are extracted and preserved by the use of chemically pure, triple-refined glycerine. Send to Dr. R. V. Pierce at Buffalo, N. Y., for free booklet which quotes extracts from well recognized medical authorities such as Drs. Bartholow, King, Scudder, Coc, Ellingwood and a host of others, showing that these roots can be depended upon for their curative action in all weak states of the stomach, accompanied by indigestion or dyspepsia as well as in all bilious or liver complaints and in all wasting diseases where there is loss of flesh and gradual running down of the strength and system.

The "Golden Medical Discovery" makes rich, pure blood and so invigorates and regulates the stomach, liver and bowels, and through them the whole system. Thus all skin affections, blotches, pimples and eruptions as well as scrofulous swellings and old open running sores or ulcers are cured and healed. In treating old running sores, or ulcers, it is well to insure their healing by applying to them Dr. Pierce's All-Healing Salve. If your drug-gist don't happen to have this Salve in stock, send fifty-four cents in postage stamps to Dr. R. V. Pierce, Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute, Buffalo, N. Y., and a large box of the "All-Healing Salve" will reach you by return post.

You can't afford to accept a secret nostrum as a substitute for this non-alcoholic, medicine or known composition, not even though the urgent dealer may thereby make a little bigger profit. Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets regulate and invigorate stomach, liver and bowels. Sugar-coated, tiny granules, easy to take as candy.

The Royal Box.

The Prince of Wales is despised by the proprietors of Paris cafes as a "one bottle royalty."

Queen Alexandra has caused it to be made known that the sheath gown will not be tolerated at her court the coming winter.

Menelik, "king of kings of Ethiopia, conquering lion of the tribe of Judah," has chosen as his successor his young grandson, Lig Eyassu or Yasu, the son of his younger daughter, a lad now about twelve years old.

Emperor William is studying oceanography. He became interested in that science through the lectures, writings and conversations of the Prince of Monaco, who is an authority on the character and queer contents of the ocean depths.

Good Rule for Life.

Italian proverb: Take help of many, advice of few.

To the King's Taste.

We learn in "Leaves From the Journal of Sir George Stuart" that when Sir George, who was chorister at the Chapel Royal, arranged the musical programme at the opening of the new London bridge in 1831 his chief attraction was a glee party.

Immediately after the glee party had sung "God Save the King" in the tent in which the king and queen were seated two unknown persons in costume, a man and his wife, stepped forward, and to Sir George's infinite disgust the man played "God Save the King" with his knuckles on his chin, accompanied by his wife's voice.

The king called Sir George to him and asked who they were. Sir George by that time knew the name of the performers and gave it, adding that he was sorry they had intruded without permission.

"Oh, no intrusion!" said the king. "It was charming. Tell them to perform again."

So Sir George had to tell the performers that their number was endorsed by royal command, and to their great delight and to the chagrin of Sir George they repeated it.

Not Abashed.

"When I was young," said a lawyer, "my best client was a wealthy old lady noted for saying caustic things about her acquaintances. One morning, when I was staying at her house, she vilified one of her neighbors, named Stamford, without stint.

"By way of changing the subject I proposed to read to her from a volume of lectures I had happened to bring with me. She assented. I started at random and when too late discovered that I was in the middle of a lecture on the government of the tongue.

"I was afraid she would think I had selected it to admonish her, yet I dared not stop for fear of seeming to make the offense more pointed. So on I read to the end, pretty sure that my reading would cost me a client worth two hundred a year to me. But when I ended she said:

"Thank you, Mr. —. It is an excellent lecture and would fit my neighbor Stamford to a T."

The Conference.

"This is a grave matter," began the undertaker.

"Consequently we want more light thrown upon it," remarked the lamp manufacturer.

"I hope our views will all be in harmony with the occasion," put in the piano maker.

"No pipe dreams," admonished the plumber.

"I hope whatever is said none will take it ill," said the doctor.

"Then we'll all be good natured and not ask cross questions," supplemented the lawyer.

But it was the remark of the baker which broke up the meeting.

"What I want to know, first of all," he declared, "is who is expected to supply the dough?"—Baltimore American.

A Swift Bird.

The Mexican road runner has only two short legs, but he can beat a horse, a hound and an electric carriage and give them a handicap start. Speed is not his only recommendation. He eats as he runs, or, rather, as the things run away with him. Snakes are the principal part of his diet, big and little. His crop is as elastic as his legs are swift, and when he wants to prepare for a long journey he coils up a rattler or two inside of his neck and sets out across the Mexican desert with a swiftness that makes it look like a bunch of dust on a record breaking tour around the world.

Carrot Pudding.

One cupful of grated carrots, one cupful of grated potatoes, one cupful of sugar, one cupful of flour, one-half cupful of raisins and currants mixed, two teaspoonfuls of all kinds of spice mixed, one teaspoonful of soda, one teaspoonful of salt. Mix all together and steam for three hours. Grease a small pail and put the dough in it. Set the pail in a kettle of boiling water, keeping the water well up near the top of the pail. Cover kettle over so all the steam may be kept in as much as possible.—Boston Post.

Burning Wood.

Wood crackles when it is ignited because the air expanded by heat forces its way through the pores of the wood with a crackling noise. Green wood makes less snapping than dry because the pores contain less air, being filled with sap and moisture, which extinguish the flame, whereas the pores of dry wood are filled with air, which supports combustion.

Posted Him.

He (vainly)—See that sweet little girl in pink? I was engaged to her the whole of last summer. Stranger (eagerly)—Very glad to hear it. I am the lawyer she's commissioned to sue you for breach of promise.

Lusty.

Shopkeeper—Is there anything else I can send you, sir? What would you say to a piece of this cheese? Customer—I wouldn't care to say anything to it. It might answer me back.

Snapped It Out.

"Dear, am I the only woman you have ever loved?"
"Yes, or ever will."
And it must have been the way he said it that made her mad.

Her Little Slip.

Departing Guest—We've had a simply delightful time! Hostess—I'm so glad. At the same time I regret that the storm kept all our best people away.—Brooklyn Life.

Miller Bros. Wild West Tomorrow

There are many Indians of all sorts with the 101 Ranch Wild West Show, which will visit Paris for performances afternoon and night, on Saturday, Sept. 19. All of them are the pure blooded people of the wild old days. Sioux, Crows, Osages, Sac and Foxes, Apaches, Cheyennes, Comanches, Poncas, Pawnees, Cherokees, Choctaws, and Navajos are represented in the camp of skin lodges which is daily pitched on the show-grounds.

Despite the advantages of civilization, the protection of the government and the benefits of peace, many of these Indian nations will soon exist only in memory. Swiftly the grim ferryman is beckoning the red-man across the dark river to the councils of his forefathers. The handful of Poncas with the show, for instance, include nearly all the survivors of the once powerful and populous tribe. The older Indians take keen delight in recounting the days when they followed the buffalo herds from place to place, leading them into traps or forcing their horses close to the fleeing animal's side and driving an arrow into its vitals.

Many famous chieftains are enrolled among the hundred Indians the Miller Brothers have gathered from many reservations. With them came wrinkle squaws, young belles of the wigwag, gay braves, and papooses, swinging uncomplaining on their mothers' backs.

The war dances performed are those which the government has for years tried unsuccessfully to discourage and check. In spite of the government and in spite of education, it will be observed that the Indians cling to old customs and old traditions. The men remain strangers to work and refuse to be introduced. They insist upon the wife performing all labor, whether there be one wife or three. The squaws carry the baggage, build the fires, erect the tepees and saddle the horses. Their reward from their stronger mates is generally a cigarette, which the squaws relish immensely. Soup is the most popular dish of food. It matters little what animal forms the base of the concoction or, with one exception, what its manner of death. An animal killed by lightning is shunned as though it embodied the spirit of the devil. A steak sliced from the flank of a dog is considered a choice morsel.

The old custom of weird names is still clung to. They are applied in connection with some peculiar incident of the person's life. Thus with the 101 Ranch Show are Girl Bear Head, Black Mountain Sheep, Big Turkey, Red Elk, White Crane, Bull Bear, Hiding woman, White Buffalo, Wolf Robe, Hooting Owl, Long Punkin, Rusty Foot, Spotted Dog, Short Tail and Belly Ache. All the Indians are required to appear in the parade of the show, which will traverse the principal streets on the morning of the day of the exhibition.

LIVE STOCK AND CROP NOTES

—Last year was a record breaker in the country's coke industry, 40,779,564 short tons being produced, nearly double the output of 1900, and more than three times that of 1897.

—California is one of the States of the Union that never goes at things by halves, as may be gleaned from this brief item: "Kern county has about 500,000 sheep and Tehama county has about 325,000."

—In alfalfa regions brood sows are fed exclusively on alfalfa hay in winter and alfalfa pasture in summer time. Very little or no grain is fed whatever. As a result the sows are always strong, vigorous and healthy.

—Joseph Heller, of Catlettsburg, a raftsmen, after a trip up the Big Sandy declares gold and copper have been found in paying quantities near Ford, Ky. A number of persons are now prospecting near the scene of the alleged find.

—Mr. Howard Nutter, of Georgetown, sold to an Eastern party Bessie Denmark, by Highland Denmark, with suckling colt by Dandy Jim, for $1,000. The mare took seven blue ribbons in Kentucky as a yearling and got the money at the World's Fair at Chicago in a ring of twenty stallions, mare and geldings.

Horse Radish.

Negro Preacher Dies Suddenly.

The Rev. J. W. Hawkins, pastor of the First Baptist church, colored, one of the best known negro ministers in Lexington, died of heart disease suddenly Wednesday morning. Tuesday night Hawkins' son was arrested by J. E. Dalton, a soldier encamped near Lexington, charged with selling liquor at the camp. This the Hawkins boy denied and Dalton created such a disturbance that it caused his arrest. Rev. Hawkins was down town when the trouble occurred and was told of it on his way home. He had been suffering from heart trouble and collapsed and had to be carried home. He died in a short time.

THEATRICAL.*IN VAUDEVILLE.

—Geo. H. Adams, "the clown," now at the Grand for three nights of this week beginning last night in his pantomime and talking comedy sketch, "Devil and the Clown," is well known throughout the country, having been with such companies as Adams & Forepaugh's "Humpty Dumpty," Hanlon Bros', "Fantasma" and Superba Company Yale's "Devil's Auction." His last appearance in Paris was with the "Sporting Craze," and so well did the play take that the company played a return date within one week. All of last season he was engaged at the Cleveland O. Hippodrome where he appeared as clown in all of the grand productions put on that mammoth stage, "Via the Cloud Burst," "Wonderland," "Coaching Days," "The Feast of a Thousand Lantends," and others. With Mr. Adams and his company and the other artists on the present bill, Mr. Jackson has something for his patrons that is well worth seeing.

Oysters in All Styles.

Stop in and try a half stew or a half fry of oysters. In fact we prepare oysters in all styles at all hours.

Harvest Home Service.

The schools having all opened and the teachers and pupils returned from their vacation, Elder Carey E. Morgan is planning for a great Harvest Home Service at the Christian Church Sunday morning, and he would be pleased to see all of you at church Sunday. He will also be in his pulpit at the evening service.

Watch Raffle To-morrow Night.

The patrons of the Paris Grand, who have been attending nightly are hoarding the numbered tickets entitling them to chances on the handsome gold watch, that is to be given away on to-morrow evening. During the past week over two thousand coupons have been given out to those who have purchased tickets. The drawing will take place immediately after the first performance, the duplicate numbers being placed in a hat and drawn therefrom by someone from the audience thereby insuring each and every person holding a chance on the handsome prize a square deal. The watches are now on display in the show window of the jewelry firm of A. J. Winters & Co.

Daughter Sues Mother.

Suit was filed at Jackson Tuesday by Mrs. Evelyn Hogg, daughter of the late Judge James Hargis, against her mother, seeking to have the department store at Jackson and all Hargis property placed in the hands of a receiver.

Absurd Standard.

The Fleimingsburg Gazette says: "The Fleming County Medical Society has adopted an order forbidding its members even running a professional card in a newspaper. It seems to us this is a step backward and a rebuke to progress, and its advantage can only redound to the benefit of the more progressive professional man who pays no attention to such an absurd standard of dignity, or whatever you might term it."

Wheat Wanted.

Before selling your wheat see us, or call "phone number 84. We buy at all stations on F. & C. and L. & N. R. R. We will store your wheat in our warehouses at Centerville, or at Millersburg, or in our elevator at Paris. Plenty of sacks.

Dynamite Exploded.

A prominent Woodford county gentleman while in Lexington a few days ago stated that the dynamite plant which George L. Graddy, an anti-Equity farmer who lives near Versailles, had planted near his tobacco barn to blow up night riders, was accidentally exploded a few days ago and killed seven of Mr. Graddy's hogs.

ATTENTION, FARMERS!

Ringling Bros'. Circus.

The people of Bourbon county will have an opportunity on Tuesday, October 6, of visiting Ringling Brothers' World's Greatest Shows, the point of exhibition being at Lexington. This season marks the twenty-fifth anniversary of this great circus, and the Ringling Brothers are celebrating the year by presenting the greatest European program ever offered, a parade that surpasses all those of the past, a new and complete menagerie, another brilliant spectacle and the most astonishing and sensational "thriller" in all history.

The "thriller" is nothing less than a double somersault in mid-air made by a heavy automobile with Mlle. La Belle Roche, a young French woman, at the wheel. The car dashes down a deep incline from the dome of the tent. An abrupt up-curved terminal hurls the car high above the heads of the audience where it accomplishes two complete revolutions and then lands with a crash on a narrow speedway, exhausting its terrific momentum on the hippodrome track.

This is an act that defies English. It cannot be described, and when once seen, the picture of it will be carried in memory to the end of life. It is the first instance where a single automobile has turned two somersaults in space.

The world-wide character of this year's remarkable company can be seen at a glance. From France comes the great St. Leon family of acrobats; the Patty Brothers, who walk, skip the rope and dance on their heads; Burgoes and Clara, the gymnasts; the wonderful Martell troupe of cyclists; the aerial Milettes, and Miss La Belle Roche, who does the dangerous automobile double somersault.

From Italy have come the great Berdini family of riders and the Marnello-Marnitz quartet of acrobatic bell-ringers. In Germany were found Schadel, the great zebra rider, Marguerite and Hanley, the gymnasts, and the Prossit and Horton and Linden, burlesque bar performers, Riccoboni, the world's greatest trainer of animals, and his marvelous company of horses are from Russia, and the Mirza Golem Acrobats are from the court of the Shah of Persia.

Wormwood and his trained bears, the Duttons and the Clark Brothers, riders; the great aerial Clarkonians, and the famous Jordan family are from England; Kerslake and his company of pigs that skip the rope and shoot the chutes are from New Zealand, and the eight Carnelols, acrobats; Alvarez, the aerialist; De Marlo, the contortionist, and a company of burlesque bull fighters are from Spain.

Tennis goods at Varden's.

Mr. W. M. Bamberge, State Agent in the employ of the United States Government Department of Agriculture, has been appointed Agricultural Superintendent of the Queen & Crescent Route, with headquarters at Lexington, Ky.

Mr. Bamberge has been in the employ of the Government Agricultural and Industrial field in different States for the last five years and he is one of the best all-round agriculturists in the Government service, familiar with truck farming, horticulture, including the management of orchards and the shipment of fruit. Mr. Bamberge will retain his title as Agent of the United States Agricultural Department and at the same time devote his time to the Agricultural and Horticultural interests along the Queen & Crescent Route.

It is the object of the management of the line in appointing Mr. Bamberge to help the various farmers to increase their output in crops and to secure an early production of the market. There is an excellent field for Mr. Bamberge along the Queen & Crescent Route and no doubt he will be a valuable asset to farmers and truck growers along this line.

Kidney Diseases Are Too Dangerous For Paris People to Neglect.

The great danger of kidney trouble is that they get a firm hold before sufferer recognizes them. Health gradually undermined. Backache, headache, nervousness, lameness, edema, diabetes and Bright's disease, low in merciless succession. Doan's Kidney Pills, which has cured people right here in Paris.

T. A. Shea, living at the St. Charles Hotel, Paris, Ky., says: "I received the most beneficial results from use of Doan's Kidney Pills in 1903. I am now glad to re-endorse everything I then said in their favor as I have unbounded faith in them as a remedy. They cured me of an aching through my back and kidneys in fact they helped me so much that now do not know what it is to have pain in my back. They are a reliable remedy and I have no hesitancy in affirming my statement in their praise. I procured them at J. A. Wilson's store."

For sale by all dealers. Price 25c. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States.

Room 13 Lucky for Senator McCreary.

Room 13, which is supposed to be unlucky that no hotel has a room with that number, has not proved so. United States Senator James McCreary, as he has always occupied room in the Capital Hotel which was No. 13, if there was any room that number, says a Frankfort paper. Senator McCreary has occupied 15 ever since his public career began. This room should be numbered 13, a number was skipped and the lettering on the door says 15. Senator McCreary was here the other day, he called here by a meeting of the Commission, and he occupied room 15 as usual. While he in that room talking to some of newspaper men he related some of associations connected with that room.

"Here is where I made my star said the Senator. 'It was in room that I first came as a member of the Legislature. I was green and certain what the future would be forth. I came here when I was years old and registered and assigned to this room. I spent winter here. That year I served the floor of the House and at the session I came back. I took the joining room and opened headquarters here. I received my friends in room, while my wife and child had other room. I was elected Speaker of the House and on my third term member of the House was again elected Speaker. I still occupied this room. Then I became a candidate Governor and this room was my headquarters when the convention was held. My chief opponent was Cero G. Williams. I was sitting in this room it not being proper for me to be in convention which was voting on race, when Dick Tate rushed in said: 'McCreary, you have been nominated.'"

Hughes on First Ballot.

Gov. Charles E. Hughes was nominated on the first ballot Tuesday afternoon by the New York Republican Convention in session at Saratoga Springs. Hughes received 27 votes against 151 for James W. Cadogan Jr. and 31 for former Congressman John K. Stewart.
